

Overview of EACH courses:

Existing courses

Teaching - under the auspices of tEACH

- What to Teach in Communication Skills Teaching: Skills and Structure
- How to teach: Experiential Communication Skills Teaching
- Challenges in Experiential Teaching
- Curriculum Development in Communication Skills Teaching
- Assessment in Communication Teaching
- Workplace based Communication Skills Teaching

Research - under the auspices of rEACH/SIG Verona Codes

- Verona Network on Sequence Analysis

New courses under development

Teaching

- Workplace learning
- End of Life conversations

Research

- PREACH: Person-centered Research in Communication in Healthcare
- Coding Communication Behaviour

Also being considered:

- Visual design in health communication research – why, when, how

Policy

- Webinar about how to manage misinformation and the difficulties of an infodemic
- Knowledge translation in healthcare communication

Hybrid course with more than one element:

- Shared Decision Making SDM
 - Research
 - Teaching
 - Practice (for clinicians)

Existing Courses for healthcare professionals/GPs co-developed by EACH

These courses include a communication skills, medical content and train the trainer component. Content has been Mental Health but could include any clinical topic.

- with WONCA (World Organisation of Family Doctors), Nivel, Trimbos
 - Training in Communication skills and/in Primary Mental Health Care
- with WONCA (World Organisation of Family Doctors) and Department of Community and Family Medicine, Fukushima Medical University, Japan
 - Train the trainers program: 'Toward Improving the Quality of Depression Management in Primary Care'.