

CODE OF CONDUCT

The 2021 TCT Meetings Digital Experience co-hosted by ASTCT and CIBMTR values the participation of each attendee, exhibitor, supporter and presenter and is committed to providing a safe, productive, and welcoming environment for all meeting participants and staff.

Accordingly, all attendees are expected to show respect and courtesy to other attendees. All communication should be appropriate for a professional audience including people of different backgrounds. All participants, including, but not limited to, virtual attendees, speakers, volunteers, exhibitors, TCT staff members, service providers, and all others are expected to abide by this Code of Conduct while participating the 2021 TCT Meetings Digital Experience.

The TCT Meetings has zero tolerance for any form of discrimination or harassment. If you experience harassment or hear of any incidents of unacceptable behavior, the TCT Meetings asks that you inform the TCT Meetings Conference Office at TCTMeetings@mcw.edu, so that the appropriate action can be taken.

Unacceptable Behavior is defined as:

- Harassment, intimidation, or discrimination in any form.
- Abuse of any virtual attendee, speaker, volunteer, exhibitor, sponsor, TCT staff member, service provider, or other meeting guest.
- Examples of abuse include, but are not limited to: comments related to age, appearance, disability, ethnicity, gender, geographic location, nationality, professional level, race, religion, and sexual orientation, or threatening or stalking any virtual attendee, speaker, volunteer, exhibitor, sponsor, TCT staff member, service provider, or other meeting guest.

In addition, participants are asked to adhere to the following rules:

- The recording and/or transmission of education sessions in any format is strictly prohibited, including taking screenshots of any presentation materials or slides.
- Presentations, postings, and messages should not contain any promotional materials, special offers, job offers, product announcements, or solicitation for any types of services. All presentations will be reviewed for compliance and the TCT Meetings reserves the right to remove inappropriate messages and potentially ban sources of those solicitations.
- Participants should not reproduce or repurpose presentation materials in any way without consent from the presenter.
- Participants should not record, copy, or take screenshots of Q&A or any chat room activity that takes place in the virtual meeting.

The TCT Meetings reserves the right to take any action deemed necessary and appropriate, including immediate removal from the 2021 TCT Meetings Digital Experience without warning or refund, in response to any incident of unacceptable behavior.
