INTRODUCTION TO AELP

The Association of Employment and Learning Providers (AELP) is the leading trade association for vocational learning and employment providers in Britain. We nationally represent the interests of over 800 providers delivering apprenticeships, employability support and other vocational learning.

We lobby on behalf of our members to Government departments and agencies involved in funded skills and back to work programmes. Members of the Association of Employment and Learning Providers (AELP) support employers in the delivery of 70% of apprenticeships in England and they deliver other publicly funded skills and employment programmes.

The majority of AELP's members are independent private, not-for-profit and voluntary sector training and employment services organisations with employers, universities, FE colleges, schools and end point assessment organisations joining AELP in increasing numbers.

AELP stands at the heart of supporting the Training Provider sector. We are here to offer support, advice and guidance and guarantee up to date information about the changes to the skills and employability agenda. Membership is open to any provider committed to quality provision and includes over 35 FE colleges involved in work based learning.

AELP Full Membership is for all independent training providers, employer providers, HEIs, universities, local authorities and FE Colleges with apprentices/learners and or jobseeker clients on any government funded skills and or employability programmes. The annual membership rate is calculated on the contracted number of learners or clients on government funded programme(s) – AEB, DWP, ESF, Loans, Study Programmes and Traineeships etc., and starts from as little as £700+ VAT.

AELP Associate Membership is open to all organisations who do not deliver any government funded contracts (i.e. no funded learners) but have an interest as a stakeholder in the vocational education, skills and employment sector and fees also start from £700+ VAT.

ABOUT A DAY WITH OFSTED 2020

The absence of full Ofsted inspections since mid-March 2020 does not detract from the importance of this year's annual report from the Chief Inspector nor the need for the providers to be fully prepared for inspection related activity when the Covid-related restrictions end.

AELP's 'A Day with Ofsted' event will provide an overview of the 2020 annual report and will also give delegates the chance to learn about Ofsted's intended approach to inspection related activity in 2021. Experiences will be shared about the autumn's interim visits, the impact on learning and the quality of the remote delivery of learning during the lockdown.

The event will consider other developments during 2020 such as the announced plan for Ofsted to inspect apprenticeships at all levels from now on, the checks on subcontracted delivery and employer involvement in inspections. Safeguarding, 'Prevent' and careers advice as mainstays of the Education Inspection Framework are also expected to feature.

Chaired by AELP's Paul Warner, the keynote address will be made by Paul Joyce HMI, Ofsted's Deputy Director for Further Education and Skills and the event will have input from Richard Pemble HMI. There will also be a provider roundtable and input from providers to hear from a provider's perspective.
