

PMI Virtual Experience Series 2021: PMXPO

Use this worksheet to estimate the number of PDUs you can earn at PMI's Virtual Experience Series 2021: PMXPO, taking place on 25 March and available on demand through 31 January 2022. Note: Be sure to read session description and details as not all sessions offer automatic PDUs. PDUs for the sessions in the chart on this page are automatically reported on your behalf. In order to receive PDUs, you must attend the first 15 minutes of the session to qualify for PDUs. PDUs will appear on transcripts within 21 business days from completion of the attended session(s); visit <https://my.pmi.org> to confirm PDU reporting. Please see page two for sessions that require you to self-report.

Sessions noted on page 1 (opening and closing keynotes, plenary session and all breakouts) will be reported on your behalf. For all other content (Sponsored and Brand You sessions), you need to self-report. See page 2 for information.

INSTRUCTIONS TO SELF-REPORT

When self-reporting, PDU values are based on 15-minute intervals. If a session is 15 minutes, you would report .25 PDUs, 30 minutes, .50 PDUs, etc.

Please define what part of the talent triangle the content applies to and submit

Step 1: Log into <https://my.pmi.org>.

Step 2: Under any of your certifications click the Report PDUs button.

Step 3: Choose the Informal Learning category under Educational section.

Step 4: Enter required information such as:

- Organization: Project Management Institute
- Course: PMXPO 2021 - Title of the session (no code needed). Please do not choose from the drop-down.
- Date: Date Started and Completed
- PDUs Claimed: Amount based on the length and content of the session.

Step 5: Submit your claim for review.

Upon submitting you will receive an email confirmation with a summary of your PDU claim. PMI will review your submission within a few business days.
