

PROPOSAL WORKSHEET FOR PMI® GLOBAL SUMMIT 2022
30 November-3 December | Las Vegas, Nevada, USA

Deadline for submissions: Monday, 16 May COB

You are encouraged to use this worksheet to prepare your proposal prior to submitting it to the PMI® Global Summit Call for Proposals Website. Refer to the Guidelines for Preparing Your Proposal Submission as a resource as you prepare your submission.

NOTE: WI-Fi in the event venue will be available; however, accepted proposals should not plan on delivering an internet dependent presentation. Wireless internet connections are not reliable due to unexpected bandwidth limitations.

Questions regarding the process can be directed to the PMI Events Team at event.speakers@pmi.org

Provide your subtopics:

PRESENTATION DELIVERY | PMI® Global Summit will include live in-person as well as virtual presentations. Please indicate your preference:

I am willing to deliver a live presentation at the event venue.

I am willing to deliver a virtual presentation that is pre-recorded and will be broadcast during the live event.

I am willing to deliver either live and/or virtually.

PRESENTATION TITLE (maximum 12 words) | A good title is important and the first opportunity to attract attendees to your session. Many people attend sessions based on the title alone.

PRESENTATION DESCRIPTION (maximum 75 words) | Similar to the title, a good description is very important and should persuade people to attend. Be as precise as possible and keep the audience in mind, as descriptions are used in event marketing materials.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES (maximum 20 words) | Used with the title and description in event marketing materials, a learning objective explains what the attendee will be able to do after attending your session. Refer to our list of learning objective verbs.

At the conclusion of this session, attendees will be able to:

Learning Objective 1:

Learning Objective 2:

PROPOSAL FULL DETAILS (maximum 350 words) | This is your opportunity to expand on your topic so that reviewers have a more comprehensive understanding of your proposal. Describe what you want to do in the session, sharing any information that helps the reviewers understand your focus and intention as well as how you will manage the session. If you have a co-presenter, describe how they will be involved.

AUDIENCE EXPERIENCE LEVEL | Choose one that best fits the expectation of the audience applicable to your presentation.

CORE: This presentation is appropriate for those interested in furthering introductory knowledge and expanding to the next level.

INTERMEDIATE: This presentation will focus on expanding existing knowledge and appropriate for those interested in using content in practical applications to master concepts.

ADVANCED: This presentation will focus on implementation of highly technical or detailed deliverables.

AUDIENCE TAKEAWAYS | Attendees want tangible takeaways that they can take back to their jobs and apply immediately. Describe at least one key takeaway from your presentation.

PRESENTATION EXPERIENCE | NOTE: Past presenters of PMI Live Events are welcome to submit; however, past presentations that have been delivered at a prior event will not be considered unless substantial updates to the content are visible in the proposal. Content that has not been previously presented will receive higher consideration.

Have you presented this proposal as a presentation before? If so, when and at what event?

If you have presented at other professional conferences/events in the past two (2) years, please indicate the name and date of the event(s) and your presentation topic(s).

SAMPLE PRESENTATION RECORDING | To complete the submission process, please submit a sample presentation that demonstrates your facilitation/speaker style. If you are recording this as a new piece, please do not read your script. The recording should simulate your presentation style and does not have to exceed more than 1 minute. The sample presentation recording may be used for more than one submission. Submissions without a sample presentation recording will be considered incomplete.

Submitter: You will have the option to submit a link to a recording or upload a recording file to Dropbox.
