Additional Opportunity Inserts for Delegate Bags $2,000

Make sure that every attendee has your company's information. Have your promotional item placed in the conference tote bag distributed to each conference registrant.

It's a highly effective way to guide attendees to your booth in the exhibit hall. Simply provide us with the promotional item and we will insert it into each delegate bag and distribute the bags to all the delegates.

Note: This is not considered a sponsorship opportunity — none of the primary benefits listed on page 5 apply to this opportunity.

Quantity required: 500 inserts

To be included in materials, your sponsorship must be submitted by October 6, 2023.

We are also bringing the delegates right in the exhibit hall for all breaks, the speakers' book signings, Sunday themed lunch and reception, Monday breakfast and breaks.

Really well-chosen exhibitors.
Most were very relevant to my interests. I spent more time speaking with them and learned more than I ever have at an event like this.

The summit is a great place to meet people face to face and engage with them.

This is the place to do it, because everybody's here and you've got two days.

They come by your booth multiple times. You have a lot of opportunities to spend quality time with each client.
