Workshops - Session One (9:00 am)

1 - Conflict Leadership, Part 1 - Creating a Culture of Positive Conflict

Presenter: Rev. David Woolverton, Elizabethtown: St. Paul's UMC

Most of us recognize that conflict is a part of life--and church. When it arises, we try to move quickly towards resolution so that we can get back to the business of peaceful ministry. But what if conflict was actually essential for the spiritual formation of the congregation? Pastor David Woolverton presents principles from his new book on how to create a culture for positive conflict in your church.

2 - PTSD and Moral Injury

Presenter: Mr. Dean Luther, Chaplain VA Medical Center

Audience will learn the differences in PTSD and Moral Injury and how to provide support to veterans and community members that might be suffering from these issues.

3 - Leadership Gets Real: Leading as Your Authentic Self

Presenter: Rev. Dan Lebo, Annville UMC and Chaplain & Coordinator of Spiritual Life at LVC
This workshop will explore some of the traits of authentic leaders and how to incorporate them into our leadership roles in the church.

4 - Fostering an Intentional Older Adult Ministry

Presenter: Rev. Dave Kling, Churchtown & Terre Hill: St. Paul's UMC

Learn the process to implement an Intentional Older Adult Ministry using tools such as Mission Insight, discernment and realistic self-evaluation. Your church is located where it is for a reason. Find your niche and fill the need.

5 - Christ Servant Minister, Certified Lay Speaker, Certified Lay Minister Training

Presenter: Mrs. Lynn McCord, Lititz UMC
