

Institute of Internal Auditors

Established in 1941, the Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA) is an international professional association of more than 210,000 members. The IIA is recognized globally as the internal audit professional's leader in certification, education, research, and technical guide.

The IIA is represented worldwide through 159 chapters in the United States, Canada and the Caribbean. Information about the IIA can be found at www.theiia.org.

The Houston Chapter of the IIA has had a rich and fulfilling history and presence in the Houston marketplace since 1948 and has grown to a membership base of over 2,200 professionals. Information about the Houston Chapter can be found at www.theiia.org/houston.

For the past 25 years, members of the Houston Chapter have gathered with those from similar professional organizations to compete in the "Houston Audit Challenge" golf tournament.

Houston Audit Challenge 2022

Thursday, May 26, 2022

Join us at the prestigious BlackHorse Golf Club for the 25th Annual Houston Audit Challenge Golf Tournament.

We welcome you to join us for a round of golf at one of Houston's most renowned golf courses! Come tee it up with your peers while enjoying the course's beautiful landscapes.

Registration

Please visit the Houston IIA Chapter website at www.theiia.org/houston to register and pay for your team's entry fees. Please see the tournament fees listed below.

Early Bird registration is now open and you can save your team $40 if you register before April 15, 2022. We encourage everyone to register early due to limited space.

Early registration will close Friday, April 15. Please direct your registration questions or for general information about this event to: Geoffrey Banez at (713) 252-1446 or geoffrey.banez@weaver.com.

For information about volunteering for this event, please contact Rafael Nolasco at (281) 748-7114 or renolasco@yahoo.com.

Proper golf attire is required at the BlackHorse Golf Club.
