

Yiming Chang

Yiming Chang is a Senior Manager in the Financial Services Office - Internal Audit Practice of EY. She has over nine years of professional experience working in the banking and asset management sector, with expertise in internal audit, risk management, regulatory compliance, and program management engagements. Yiming's experience includes conducting an independent assessment, performing industry benchmarking, and assisting with regulatory issue validation for her clients' BSA/AML and OFAC program. She has experience working with FRB, OCC, NYDFS, and other foreign regulators.