

Kyle Newton

Kyle Newton is a Chicago-based Senior Manager within the Financial Services Office - Internal Audit Practice of EY. Kyle has over twelve years of Internal Audit experience working in the Financial Services industry, advising on leading practices, regulatory risk and control frameworks, remediation of control deficiencies, controls testing and internal audit optimization. This also includes experience related to consent order validations and BSA/AML independent assessments at regional and global financial institutions.