

Ms. Roderick is a Regional Accountant for the FDIC Division of Risk Management Supervision. In this position, she provides analytical and technical assistance in depository institution accounting practices and procedures, auditing techniques, and regulatory reporting requirements in the New York Region. Previously, she served as a commissioned examiner in the FDIC's New York City and Hartford, CT field offices. Patti is a Certified Public Accountant and a member of the AICPA and the Connecticut Society of CPAs. Her presentation will cover regulatory hot topics, including regulatory reporting changes and highlights in the context of the pandemic relating to the Call Report, CECL, and the annual independent audit and reporting requirements of Part 363 of the FDIC Rules and Regulations.